California town for sale on eBay -- again

BRIDGEVILLE, Calif., March 20 (UPI) -- A picturesque California town that was the first ever to be auctioned on eBay four years ago is for sale again for more than double the original asking price.

Bidding begins April 4 for the 83-acre Bridgeville, which Bruce Krall, a Laguna Hills financial broker bought for $700,000. He is now seeking a minimum bid of $1.75 million for the riverfront property, the Los Angeles Times reports.

Krall had wanted to turn Bridgeville into a retreat center, but family issues forced him to abandon the idea. He said he spent hundreds of thousands cleaning and sprucing up the town.

The package includes three cows, a 136-year-old post office building, a vacant cafe and a cemetery.

Founded in 1865 by a trapper, Bridgeville is on the Van Duzen River, 260 miles north of San Francisco on a two-lane highway that twists through redwood forests. About 25 people live there.

There is no grocery store, gas station or restaurant.

Krall is optimistic people will line up for a chance to own the former logging town.

"Finding riverfront property for sale in California is rare," he said.
